Then you fill out the information on your event and click submit. Most important are to enter the correct GMT timezone for your event location. If you are unsure, please go to <https://www.timeanddate.com/> to check. The estimated start and end times of your event will be used to indicate on the global map when your event is active. The address of your event is also important so that it can be displayed on the global map properly. You can edit your event by clicking on My events and then edit.
